With a population of just over 10,000 people in the greater area and a county that consists of more than 85% public lands, there are countless experiences ready for pursuit.

The river is controlled by Libby Dam which holds the Koocanusa Reservoir – a 90-mile long stretch of boating and fishing paradise. And if a reservoir is too big for you, Lincoln County is home to more than 200 lakes; from drive-up to walk-in access.
- MT Hwy 37 is the state’s only Scenic Byway; and the Libby area is home to several disc golf courses and rifle/archery ranges.

You will find a good quality of life in Libby with many small town advantages such as no traffic, low cost of living and no lines! Yet it is located on a major transportation corridor with US Highway 2 and commercial and passenger railroad available; as well as a public airstrip. In addition:
